Dear Mr. Finch:

I have delayed acknowledging your thoughtful letter of December 28th until I could give you something more definite in regard to the status of the application of ⬚ for a position with the Central Intelligence Agency. I am happy to be able to tell you at this time that ⬚ is being processed for a relatively senior position with the Agency. For reasons of security which you will understand, I am not at liberty to reveal the exact nature of the assignment.

I shall hope for the pleasure of seeing you in the near future on one of my visits to the Union Club and meanwhile, please accept my best wishes for the new year.

Sincerely,

W. B. Smith
